JURY QUESTIONNAIRE

Preliminary Instructions

Please read the following instructions carefully before completing any portion of this questionnaire. Please answer each and every question by inserting check marks in the boxes or by providing the information requested. Please answer each question fully. Some questions have more than one part.

YOU ARE SWORN TO GIVE TRUE AND COMPLETE ANSWERS TO ALL QUESTIONS IN THIS QUESTIONNAIRE. This questionnaire is designed to help simplify and shorten the jury selection process, and to help the Court and the parties learn enough information about each juror's background and experiences to select a fair and impartial jury. The purpose of the questionnaire is to determine whether prospective jurors can decide this case impartially based upon the evidence presented at trial and the legal instructions given by the Judge. The questions are not intended to inquire unnecessarily into personal matters. The use of this questionnaire will avoid the necessity of asking each prospective juror these questions in open court, and efforts will be made to keep your responses as confidential as possible.

Please answer all questions as fully and completely as you can to the best of your ability. If you do not know the answer to a question, please write, "I don't know." There are no "right" or "wrong" answers, only truthful answers. If you have strong feelings about this case in general, please do not hesitate to share them. Although you may be a perfectly good juror in another case, this may or may not be the right case for you to sit on as a juror. Both parties have the right to hear your honest answers and true opinions.

If you need extra space to answer any question, please use the extra blank pages included at the end of the questionnaire. Be sure to indicate on the blank page the number of the question you are answering. Please do not write anything on the back of any page of the questionnaire.

DO NOT DISCUSS THE QUESTIONS, YOUR ANSWERS, OR THE CASE WITH ANYONE UNTIL YOU RECEIVE FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE COURT. You should not discuss the questions or your answers with fellow jurors. It is very important that your answers be your own individual answers. More broadly, do not discuss the case with anyone, including the lawyers (except in the presence of the Court), your fellow jurors, your family, your friends, or anyone else. Do not communicate about the case in any way, including by telephone, e-mail, social media (such as Facebook), or any communications app/website (such as Twitter). You must also avoid reading or hearing about the case (or anyone participating in the case) in newspapers, in magazines, on the radio or television, or on the Internet.

The defendant in this case is Jerry Nehl Boylan. DO NOT CONDUCT ANY RESEARCH ON MR. BOYLAN OR THE CASE (or anyone participating in the case) at any time before your entire jury service has been completed. This includes performing Internet searches, searching social media, asking other people about Mr. Boylan or the case, reading news stories or reports about Mr. Boylan or the case, or watching television programs that relate to Mr. Boylan or the case.

Jerry Boylan is presumed innocent of the charge against him, and it is the government's burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that he committed the crime charged in the indictment. Mr. Boylan has no burden to present any evidence at all and also has no obligation to testify at trial.

If you believe that any of your answers contain private information that could embarrass you or otherwise seriously compromise your privacy, and wish to request that the Court keep them confidential and not distribute them beyond the Judge and parties, you may indicate that on one of the blank pages at the end of this form. (Please identify the specific answer or answers that you wish to remain confidential.) After a jury has been selected, all copies of your responses to the questionnaire will be returned to the Court.

Conduct as Jurors

77. Under our criminal justice system, the facts are to be determined by the jury and the law is to be determined by the Court. These two responsibilities are separate and distinct. As such, when a Court instructs jurors about the law during and at the end of a trial, the jurors are required to accept the law as provided by the Court, even if the jurors do not personally agree with the law. If you were to become a juror on this case, is there any reason why you would be unwilling or unable to apply and follow the law as given to you by the Court? ☐ Yes ☐ No If yes, please explain:

78. If chosen to sit as a juror, the Court will instruct you to not discuss this case with other jurors, or anyone else, until the case is submitted to the jury for a decision. The Court will also instruct that you must neither form nor express any opinion on any subject connected with the case until it is submitted to the jury for a decision. Will you be able to follow these instructions? ☐ Yes ☐ No If no, please explain.

79. There are some people who, for moral, ethical, religious, or other reasons, believe that it is improper or would find it difficult to pass judgment on the conduct of others. Do you hold such beliefs? ☐ Yes ☐ No If yes, please describe your beliefs.

80. If chosen to sit as a juror, the Court will instruct you that you cannot read, watch, or listen to any accounts of this case in the news or on social media. Will you be able to follow this instructions? ☐ Yes ☐ No If no, please explain.

81. If you were to inadvertently read, watch, or listen to an account of this case in the news or on social media, can you give the Court and the parties your assurance that you will still decide the case based only on the evidence presented in the courtroom? ☐ Yes ☐ No If no, please explain.

82. If chosen to sit as a juror, the Court will instruct you that your verdict must not be based on sympathy, passion, or prejudice, and instead, must be based on the evidence presented in this case and the law provided by the Court. Will you be able to follow these instructions? ☐ Yes ☐ No If no, please explain.

83. The potential punishment for the offenses charged in the indictment is a matter that the jury should never consider in arriving at its verdict. If you are selected as a juror in this case, will you be able to hear the evidence, deliberate with your fellow jurors, and apply the law as provided by the Court, without speculating about the punishment that may or may not be imposed in this case? ☐ Yes ☐ No If no, please explain.

84. If you are selected as a juror, you will be required to deliberate with 11 other jurors. This will require you to discuss the evidence and law in this case with those other jurors. Is there anything that leads you to believe that you would be unable or unwilling to engage in such discussions with your fellow jurors and reach a verdict in this case? ☐ Yes ☐ No If yes, please explain.

85. Is there any other reason, which you have not previously described in this questionnaire, why you think you cannot be a fair and impartial juror in this case? ☐ Yes ☐ No If yes, please describe.

WITNESS LIST

The following is a list of POTENTIAL witnesses for this trial, or witnesses who may be called to testify. Please review the list and CIRCLE any name you know personally, or of whom you might have heard. Next to the witness's name, please indicate your relationship and what you have heard.
